Spring

2011

Accounting Club

The mission of the Accounting Club is to provide accounting students with the opportunity to learn about different facets of accounting in various industries. Group members have the chance to interact with each other and current accounting professionals. Throughout the year, students are able to network with guest speakers from several industries, such as public accounting firms, governmental and health care agencies, and the sports and private sector.

Active Minds

Active Minds' goal is to increase student awareness of mental health issues on LVC's campus. They want to remove the stigma surrounding mental health issues. Active Minds provides information and resources about mental health and illness, encourages students to seek help as soon as it is needed, and serves as a link between students and the mental health community.

Chemistry Club

An affiliate of the American Chemical Society, the Chemistry Club is open to all interested students. The mission of the club is the professional, academic, and social development of its members through participation in chemical symposia, student mentoring programs, and a departmental-wide seminar series.

Equestrian Club

The Equestrian Club is a sport club that was established to promote equestrian activities, and it allows students to ride and learn more about horses. The club gives students the opportunity to participate in intercollegiate shows at all levels from beginner to open and jumping classes.

Freedom Rings

Freedom Rings is a student organization that was founded in 1994 and is dedicated to supporting, educating, and advocating for students, faculty, and staff who are gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender. They discuss various issues in the GLBT community on campus and around the world, as well as plan campus-wide activities to promote GLBT awareness. Membership is open to all people committed to this mission, including heterosexual allies.

He Is Savior

HIS is a contemporary Christian worship band. The objective of the members is to use the gifts and talents that God has given them to glorify him. HIS performs both off campus, at local churches, and on campus during the spring semester.

InterVarsity

InterVarsity is Lebanon Valley's chapter of a national organization that is present at over 560 college campuses across the United States. It strives to be a welcoming place for all students who are interested in deepening their relationship with God through Bible study, leadership training, and mission opportunities. Students participate in events at LVC and build relationships with students on other college campuses at cross-campus events and conferences.

La Vie Collegienne

La Vie is a respected two-time award-winning newspaper that was founded in 1924. La Vie strives to provide fair and balanced news coverage of events concerning both LVC and the Annville community. It is entirely staffed by students and allows for student staff members to gain experience in journalistic work. The newspaper is available in both print and online editions.

LVC NORML

NORML (National Reformation of Marijuana Laws) is for anyone who believes marijuana laws are unjust and need to be changed. It is also for anyone who believes in medical reform for the drug and decriminalization. The group is politically active and organizes awareness events throughout the academic year.

Mars Hill

Mars Hill seeks to engage fellow students in respectful dialogue about "hot button" topics related to religion, spirituality, and Christianity. Events include informal discussions, guest speakers, panel discussions, and formal debates. Everyone, regardless of perspective or religious beliefs, is encouraged to attend events. Those who attend planning meetings are members of Mars Hill.

Math Club

Math Club is an academic and social group dedicated to spreading an appreciation for mathematics to students at the college, high school, and elementary level. Math club connects students through a variety of events including the Math Olympics, the Math Quiz Bowl, and various socials.

Music Industry Conference

The Music Industry Conference committee plans the annual music conference held at LVC. The organization and planning of the conference centers around the MBS 179 class. Though primarily music industry and recording majors are involved with the creation of the conference, students of all majors are invited to participate in the planning. The student clubs MISA (Music Industry Students Association) and AES (Audio Engineering Society) serve as foundations to the conference.

Pallas Honor Society

Pallas is a campus-based honor society that was established in 2009. Members consist of students, faculty, and staff from the past two Social Justice Institutes, selected LVC alums that were instrumental in promoting social justice, and students who participated in the Social Justice Collaborative held in 2006.

Phi Beta Lambda

Phi Beta Lambda is the official business club of Lebanon Valley College. Students are invited to participate in the PBL State Conference at the end of April, and they also compete with other business students across the nation in an online testing competition. In the past, Lebanon Valley College has placed in the top three in several different categories.

Physical Therapy Club

Physical Therapy Club is made up of students in the undergraduate and graduate phases of the PT program. The club provides members with a great opportunity to get involved at LVC, especially within the Physical Therapy major. The club has participated in a number of community events and at the same time has worked towards developing the professional goals of its members.

Praise Him With Dance

Praise Him with Dance is a Christian dance group, which performs at local churches as well as the churches of its members. They perform various dance styles such as lyrical, ballet, hip-hop, and tap.

Psi Chi

Psi Chi is the national psychology honor society; the society runs the Social Sciences Undergraduate Conference, originally started by Kyle Ward in 2009. Psi Chi is involved in various fundraisers and community service activities, and often members participate in the annual Eastern Psychological Association Conference.

Psychology Club

Psych club is open to any student interested in the field of psychology, but its members consist mostly of students majoring or minoring in psychology or psychobiology. This club gives students the opportunity to socialize together, discuss psychological issues, attend the Eastern Psychological Association Conference, participate in community service, and share ideas on various campus-related topics.

Servants of Christ

Servants of Christ, is a Christian service organization open to all students. They organize and participate in various service projects throughout the year, including Operation Christmas Child, Appalachian Service Project, Relay for Life, a spring break trip to Oneonta, New York, and various smaller projects.

Student Alumni Association

LVC's Student Alumni Association has a mission to "bridge the gap" between yesterday's students and tomorrow's alumni through programs that encourage a lifelong commitment of service between alumni and the College. The group works closely with the Alumni Office by participating in events, including Oktoberfest Weekend and the Lazin Lecture Series. These, and many other activities, give students a chance to network with the college's alumni.

Student Programming Board

Student Programming Board is student-run and organizes campus-wide events, including the Coffeehouse series, the Friday night comedians and performers, and the Saturday Redbook events. Members have the opportunity to travel to a conference once a semester to watch performers. After the conference, students select the most entertaining acts that they would like to bring to campus.

Tri-Beta Biological Honor Society

LVC's Alpha Zeta chapter of Beta Beta Beta, the national biological honor society, inducts students annually who have completed three semesters of biology classes and have maintained a GPA of 3.0 or higher. The honor society engages in social activities, encourages community outreach, and supports research within the biological sciences.

ValleyFest

This committee plans the annual Spring Arts Festival, known as ValleyFest. Several sub-committees work throughout the entire year to organize various aspects of the weekend. ValleyFest continues to provide crafts, games, and entertainment for both the community and students to enjoy.

Wig & Buckle

The Wig and Buckle Theater Company is a Lebanon Valley College tradition that was founded in 1935. It currently produces three performances each year, two plays and one musical. Each production is student directed and entirely student run. Membership is open to all students interested in any aspect of dramatics and theater production. Wig and Buckle meets every Monday at 4 p.m. in Leedy Theater in the Mund College Center. All are welcome.

Womens Rugby

The Women's Rugby Club is an organization that is open to all female students. Rugby is a rising sport that is similar to both soccer and football. This club provides the competitive spirit and togetherness of a varsity team but with a flexible schedule. They play matches against other college teams in both the spring and fall seasons.

Alpha Phi Omega

Alpha Phi Omega "APO" Nu Delta chapter is a national co-ed fraternity. Our three cardinal principles are Leadership, Friendship, and Service and strive to practice all three during our daily lives. During the past 50 years at LVC we have done a great amount of service to the nation, community, campus and brotherhood. A sample of projects we do are Day of Caring, washing the cleona firetrucks, Special Olympics, Relay for Life, Central Pennsylvania Blood Drives, entertainment/friendship to Renova center in Lebanon and much more!

Gamma Sigma Sigma

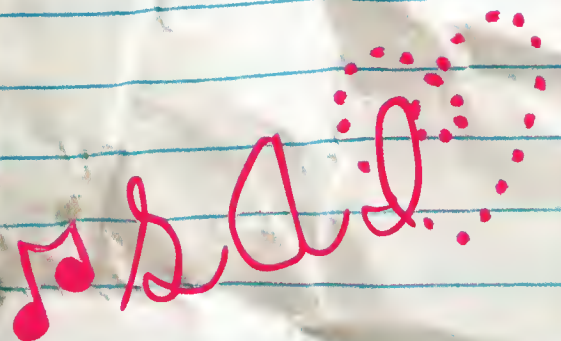

Gamma Sigma Sigma is a national organization dedicated to serving campuses and communities. Locally, they are involved with the Philadelphia AIDS walk, Relay for Life, Adopt a Highway, and a variety of community organizations. In 2009, the Beta Chi Chapter was awarded the President's Award for outstanding service to others.

Dear Matthew,

Who would have guessed on that Christmas morning almost 12 years ago when we surprised you with your first drumset that it would lead to your developing passion for music and graduating with a music degree? We lived through years of hearing banging drumheads, clashing cymbals, and steady boom of your double bass pedal - and we loved every minute of it (well, almost every minute). Making music made you happy, which made us happy and also very glad you had found your niche in life so early. We know without a doubt that you will persevere and succeed in anything you set your mind to. Your journey as a musician may have started in the fifth grade, but your true adventure begins now. We are so very proud of you.

All our love and congratulations,
Mom & Dad

To Our Sarah,

We hope your life that lies ahead is as exciting as your years at LVC. Carpe Diem and always let God guide your steps. We love you and are so proud of you!

Mom, Dad, and Justin

Our Dearest Erin,

From your first day of preschool to your college graduation... where did the time go? We know you will succeed in bringing music into the hearts and souls of all your students! We are so proud of you! May God bless you always.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Katie Cerullo

You did it! We are so very proud of you and all your accomplishments. You've shown that you have initiative and are very passionate about your chosen career. We've watched you grow from a little girl who was full of wonder and very inquisitive into a beautiful woman, still full of that wonder and still asking "why". We know you won't stop until you get the answers you are looking for. We hope you'll always remember:

Whatever road you choose, we're right behind you, win or lose. - Rod Stewart

You'll always be FOREVER YOUNG to us.

Love you always,
Mom & Dad

Lauren,

Your college graduation... so hard to believe. You've persevered through many trials and it's your faith that carried you. "Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see." Hold on to that faith as you step out into this big world. We are so proud and love you very much!

Love,
Dad, Mom, and DeeJ

Ashten,

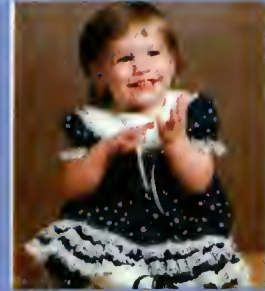

It seems like only yesterday you were a little girl and now you're all grown up. We can't even begin to tell you how proud we are of you Good luck in Charolette Nc, We Will Miss You!

Love,
Mom & Dad

"You can't triple a double stamp, Dane!"

-Congratulations, Jake and Dane- we are super proud of you! - from the Beckers

Dear Julie,

"To accomplish great things, we must not only act but also dream, not only plan but also believe." The past four years have flown by and your college graduation is rapidly approaching. You have accomplished great things at Lebanon Valley College. As you close this chapter of your life and embark on a new path take our immense love and pride as they go where you go. Always follow your heart and dreams.

Congratulations.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Jason, Jared, Lisa & Brinley

Ally,

Wow! Has time flown, and here you are

My little girl ready to graduate...

there are so many things I want to say.

But the lyrics of Mark Harris compiles them so well...

So may God bless you and guide you to "Find Your Wings"...

It's only for a moment you are mine to hold

The plans that heaven has for you

Will all too soon unfold

So many different prayers I'll pray

For all that you might do...

...I want you to know

As I watch you grow

I pray that God would fill your heart with dreams

And that faith gives you the courage

To dare to do great things

I'm here for you whatever this life brings

So let my love give you roots

And help you find your wings

May passion be the wind

That leads you through your days

And may conviction keep you strong

Guide you on your way

May there be many moments

That make your life so sweet...

Congratulations Sweetheart! God Bless You!!

Love Mom, Chrissy, Alex n Kaiden

TARA JO NEIHEISER '11

Your HAPPINESS and SMILE will bring as much JOY to the children you will be TEACHING as it has to us ever since you have been born. We are so PROUD of ALL your Accomplishments and Success at LVC, and wish you the BEST for you future teaching career and DREAMS in life!

LIVE * LAUGH * LOVE

WE LOVE YOU,

Ally Verdi, you did it!!! Yeah! We're so proud of you!!! Love, Uncle Jimmy, Aunt Jerri Lynn, Uncle Michael, Aunt Annette, Uncle Carm, Uncle Arty, & Aunt Kathy

Ally Verdi, some day we hope to be just like you!! Congrats on your graduation. Love your cousins, James Clay, Dominick, Zach, Jake, Bradon, Justin, Lil' Carm, & Giovanna

To our daughters, Lisa Marie and Lauren Ann, we are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. The following lyrics express our hopes and dreams for you and your future. Love, Mom, Dad and Valerie.

"Forever Young"
by, Rod Stewart

May the good Lord be with you
Down every road you roam
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud
Dignified and true
And do unto others
As you'd have done to you
Be courageous and be brave
And in my heart you'll always stay
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young

May good fortune be with you
May your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven with a prince or a vagabond

And may you never love in vain and in my heart you will remain
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young
Forever Young

And when you finally fly away
I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell

But whatever road you choose
I'm right behind you, win or lose
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young
For, Forever Young, Forever Young
